UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO FACULTY OF MEDICINE | Office of Inclusion & Diversity

We All Belong

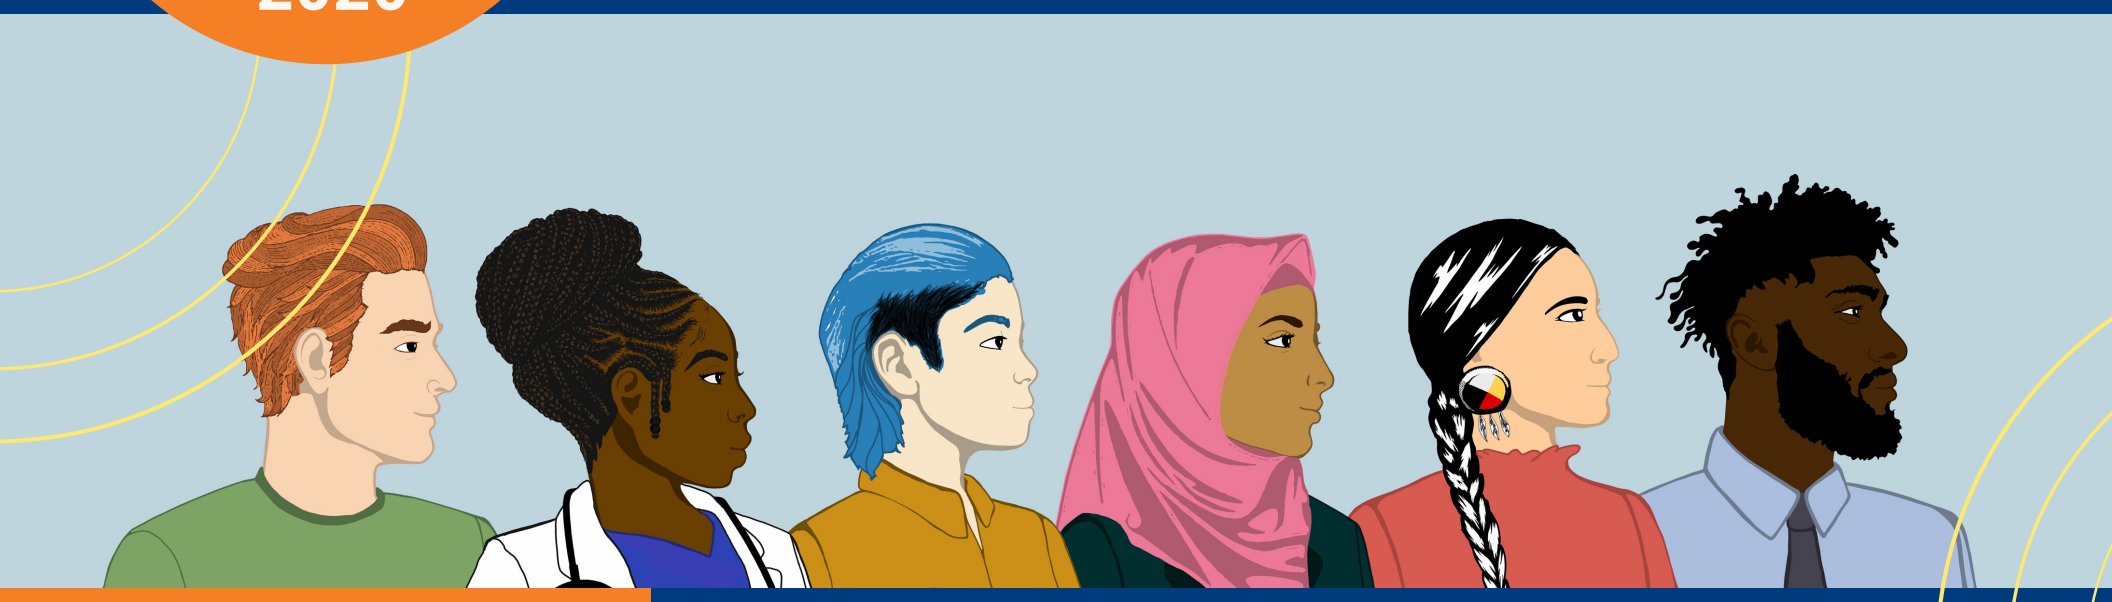
SPORT & REC

DIVERSITY MOVES US

JANUARY 21 2020

HOW DO WE TALK ABOUT RACE?

A panel discussion unpacking how race and racism operate in health services, research and education.



DIVERSITY DIALOGUE EVENT

FEATURING PRESENTATIONS, A PANEL DISCUSSION AND COMMUNITY DIALOGUE THAT WILL PROVIDE HEALTH PRACTITIONERS, LEARNERS, RESEARCHERS AND STAFF WITH TOOLS AND FRAMEWORKS TO DISCUSS RACE.

Panelists will explore the topics of systemic racism and the process of racialization as they relate to health inequities and learner experiences. This event is open to all Faculty of Medicine learners, staff and faculty, as well as the wider U of T community.

MODERATOR:

DR. LISA ROBINSON

Associate Director, Inclusion and Diversity, Faculty of Medicine

Date: January 21, 2020
Registration: 5:30 PM
Presentations & Panel: 5:45 PM-8 PM
Reception: 8-9 PM

Snacks & Refreshments Provided.

Location: Hart House
7 Hart House Circle,
East Common Room
Toronto, ON

Register Today!
bit.ly/raceinhealthcare

PANELISTS:

DR. RITIKA GOEL

Family physician and leader in health-related activism.

DR. JANET SMYLIE

Leader in Indigenous health & one of Canada's 1st Métis physicians.

DR. JANELLE JOSEPH

Professor, researcher, writer and critical race theorist.

DR. STEPHANIE NIXON

Professor, physiotherapist and critical social scientist studying privilege.