

Rabbi Ariella Rosen is the Senior Jewish Educator at Hillel U of T. She moved to Toronto from New York City, where she previously worked as the admissions director for the seminary where she was ordained as a rabbi. She has training in experiential education and community organizing and spent a few years working as a congregational rabbi in Philadelphia. Rabbi Ariella cares deeply about cultivating joy alongside the meaningful and profound.