

Biography

Facilitator: Jacqueline Dressler

Jacqueline Dressler (she/her) is the Manager of Advocacy at Western Hillel and Hillel at the University of Toronto. Jacqueline moved to Canada and joined Hillel Ontario's Advocacy team in 2021 after completing her education at the University of Michigan. Jacqueline has undergraduate degrees in history and Jewish studies and did her graduate work in Jewish studies and Jewish communal leadership at the Frankel Center for Jewish Studies. Her Master's thesis was titled "From Das Judenthum in der Musik to Entartete Kunst to The Operated Jew: How The Jew Was Both Modern Art and Degeneracy."

Jacqueline worked for several years for the University of Michigan's Office of Academic Multicultural Initiatives where her passion for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion work was solidified - her deep commitment to DEI principles guide her advocacy work. In addition to her advocacy and community-building work, Jacqueline also educates groups about the history, proliferation, and effects of antisemitism.

*This document is available in alternate formats upon request.