

Biography

Michelle Bookal (she/her)

Born and raised in Toronto, Canada Michelle grew up singing in church on praise teams and choirs. Her parents hail from the beautiful island of Jamaica and have instilled a love for music in her from a young age. Her love for Gospel music is evident but she also has a deep appreciation for contemporary, jazz, blues and other popular genres! In addition to singing at various shows including the Toronto Black Diamond Ball, weddings and corporate events throughout Canada she has most notably been featured on CP24 (Country-wide news) as well as singing in a PEPSI ad.

Michelle has used her talents to assist her way through nursing school and is now a Registered Nurse in Washington, DC. She aspires to continue to develop herself as a singer/songwriter, but most importantly as a future OBGYN finding creative ways to combine her love for music with her passion for medicine.
